

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., January 4, 1896.

Herman Kretz Esq.,
Superintendent, U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

I send you by express today fifty (50) alluminum blanks which the Scovill Manufacturing Company were kind enough to furnish , to be used in striking fifty (50) medals of the Secretary of the Treasury. When the medals are struck you will please forward them to the Scovill Manufacturing Company, as heretofore, to be finished. You will render your account for the cost of striking these medals to this Bureau.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 192

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
January 4, 1896

Herman Kretz Esq.,
Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

I send you by express today fifty (50) aluminum blanks which the Scovill Manufacturing Company were kind enough to furnish, to be used in striking fifty (50) medals of the Secretary of the Treasury. When the medals are struck you will please forward them to the Scovill Manufacturing Company, as heretofore, to be finished. You will render your account for the cost of striking these medals to this Bureau.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Director of the Mint.